

Kathleen Mundell is the Director of Cultural Resources, Inc., a non-profit working with communities on developing strategies that help sustain their local culture. Ms. Mundell holds a Master's Degree in Folklore from Indiana University and has over twenty years experience in the fields of public sector folklore and community arts. She has produced a radio series, folk festivals, educational programs and fourteen exhibitions on traditional culture and folk art. Previously, Kathleen directed the Traditional and Community Arts Program at the Maine Arts Commission. A 15-year collaboration with Maine's Wabanaki basketmakers resulted in a multi-tribal effort to preserve the ash basketry tradition, and in the creation of the Maine Indian Basketmakers Alliance. Based on her work with Maine's Wabanaki and New York's Akwesasne basketmaking communities, Ms. Mundell is currently working on "North by Northeast: Haudenosaunee and Wabanaki Traditional Arts" to be published by Tillbury House Press in 2008.
